Main level photos continued—this is 3rd bedroom.

Pictures of the lower level: Walkout access to the back yard from family room with fireplace. The 4th bedroom is located on this bath and also a hall bath. There is a large storage area that sits underneath the living room above it on the main level. Since this is a front to back split, the storage room does have a lower ceiling but you can still stand in this space. You enter the house from the garage on this level.
